UNITED STATES.

THE ITALO-AMERICAN DIFFICULTY.

Baron Fava, the Italian Minister at Washington, is reported by the Paris Soleil, on his arrival in that city, as much annoyed at the action of the United States in regard to the New Orleans affair. According to that paper the Baron, while on his way across the Atlantic, assured several of his fellow-passengers that the Marquis Imperiali, Italian Charge d'Affaires at Washington, would be recalled. Italy, the Baron is said to have added, would not have a diplomatic representative at Washington until the New Orleans affair is finally settled.

A citizen of Rome informed a London correspondent that while he hated and despised the Mafia, he recognized that the vendetta was inevitable, and that the leaders in the American tragedy would die by violence sooner or later, though perhaps not for two or three years. He said that this was the chief reason in Italy for punishing murder with imprisonment instead of death, as a vendetta had always followed the capital penalty.

SPANISH RECIPROCITY.

The reciprocity convention between Spain and the United States provides that in return for the privilege of free entry into the United States of Antilles sugars, molasses, coffee and hides, and a reduction of the duty on tea, America shall obtain exemption from duties on most of her raw and manufactured products and a reduction of the tariff on cereals and flour.

Premier Canovas offered protracted resistance to the abolition of the tariff on flour, owing to protests of Spanish traders. Eventually the representations that American reciprocity would be impossible without the free admission of American cereals induced Premier Canovas to assent to such a reduction of the tariff as will place American flour upon a nearly equal footing with Spanish flour. Spanish merchants believe that the treaty will be ruinous to them, and it is said the Government would never have made the concessions it has, were it not for the fear of civil war in Cuba if the treaty was rejected.

EUROPE.

ENGLAND AND PORTUGAL.

England is aroused over the high-handed actions of Portugal in Africa. A Boer expedition, with the consent of Portugal, is to establish a republic in either Mashonaland or Manica-land. This, if carried out, will affect the Manica territory claimed by England.

A short time ago the Portuguese authorities at Beira detained the mails destined for British colonies in Mashonaland and refused to allow them to be carried to their destination. Several British colonists have been imprisoned and most of the British settlers have left Mashonaland on account of the arbitrary action of the Portuguese.

Colonel Willoughby has reached Delagoa Bay. He reports that on arrival at Beira he was refused the privilege of paying the prescribed duties for entering the Penge river. As he received no answer after forty-eight hours he started without permission, when the Portuguese opened fire upon him, seized his two steamers, with the mails and provisions, and imprisoned sixteen of the crew. Colonel Willoughby says that the lives of the British at Beira are in great danger.

THE QUEEN AT MOLOKAI.

An Enthusiastic Reception Tendered Her Majesty.

Arches Erected With Appropriate Mottoes.

Notes, Incidents, Comments.

The steamer Likieke, under command of Captain Cameron, left Honolulu last Sunday evening at ten o'clock to convey Her Majesty the Queen to the Leper Settlement on Molokai. The royal party was as follows: Her Majesty the Queen, H. R. H. Prince Kalaniana'ole, His Excellency Samuel Parker, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clark. Her Majesty's party and suite were accompanied by the following persons: Hon. David Dayton, President of the Board of Health; Hons. D. W. Pua, J. Nawahi, J. K. Kahookano, W. P. Kanealii, Capt. John Ross, Mr. and Mrs. W. Auld and J. Heleluhe. The Royal Hawaiian Band, under the direction of Prof. H. Berger, was present, together with a representative of the BULLETIN.

After all were comfortably aboard the Likieke left the harbor and arrived at Kalaupapa at 6:15 o'clock the next morning. Breakfast was had at seven o'clock, after which all went ashore. As soon as the royal landing was made Her Majesty the Queen and party were greeted in a most demonstrative and friendly manner by large numbers from the Leper Settlement. As soon as Her Majesty landed she was welcomed by cheer upon cheer. The Leper Settlement band played Hawaii Ponoi. The royal Hawaiian Band played in response. A royal salute was fired from the hills opposite.

As soon as Her Majesty placed foot on shore she was beneath a triumphal arch with the inscription, "Aloha i ka Moiwahine." Immediately upon leaving the landing the royal party passed under two arches bearing respectively the following inscriptions: "Kulika Nuu" and "Aloha e ka Lani." Her Majesty was then driven to the residence of Mr. Wm. Tell, Superintendent of the Leper Settlement. At the entrance was placed the following motto upon an appropriate arch: "Makia o kou Aupuni o ka pono." The decorations of all the arches were artistically done in ferns and roses woven by loving hands.

Shortly after the landing was made the stricken subjects of Her Majesty the Queen assembled in large numbers to welcome her. Her Majesty appeared. She greeted them with the simple but tender words "aloha okou." The lepers burst into a similar heartfelt welcome; it contained only two words: "Aloha no," but there were cheers upon cheers, which drowned the formal words of welcome in one aloha shout.

Shortly afterwards Hon. E. K. Liliikalani introduced His Excellency Hon. Samuel Parker, Minister of Foreign Affairs, who addressed the lepers substantially as follows: "Her Majesty the Queen has come to you out of her love. She hopes to supplement the work done by her predecessors. Her heart is full of sympathy and love for you, her afflicted subjects. You have suffered much from the dread disease which has stricken you, but Her Majesty never forgets that you are her subjects. Upon your welfare Her Majesty and the Cabinet have but one thought—but one wish; that is, for your future comfort. Her Majesty is greatly pleased with the sincerity of your welcome and will requite your words of welcome with repeated recommendations for acts of relief."

Speeches were then made by Hon. J. Nawahi, Hon. J. K. Kahookano, Hon. E. K. Liliikalani, Mr. Kekipi and Rev. J. Kalama. These speeches were received with great enthusiasm as was also that of Hon. Samuel Parker.

A number of the lepers then took occasion to address Her Majesty the Queen. One of these speeches was especially effective. It related most pathetically the ravages of the dreadful disease upon the speaker; how hard it was for him to be forced to leave his family and those he loved, his wife and children, to be consigned to a place where, perhaps, he should never leave. Tears were brought to the eyes of his listeners.

Soon after the speeches were done horses were procured and the party started for a ride to the Bishop House. The Home is in charge of the Catholic Sisters under the direction of Sister Marianne. The young girls of the Home were all neatly dressed in white. The school children were brought before the Queen, and as each passed Her Majesty, dropped a courtesy. The girls then formed in line and sang several pretty Hawaiian songs. The joyful appearance of these poor, unfortunate children wrung the hearts of all those present and handkerchiefs were freely used to wipe the tears which sprang unbidden to the eyes.

"The Sisters in charge of the Home then showed the party through the hospital, the school rooms and the dormitories, all of which display great neatness and do the management of the Home great credit. From the Home the party drove to Kalaupapa, where Her Majesty was again received with a royal salute of 21 guns, the ringing of the bell and the cheering of the crowd.

A visit was then made to the boy's school at Kalaupapa. This school is also under the management of the Catholic Sisters. The pupils of this school went through similar exercises as did those at the girls' school. The Royal party then returned to Kalaupapa where they were invited to a luau at the residence of Superintendent Wm. Tell. The dishes presented to the guests were many and of dainty varieties.

During the visit a trip was made by members of the party, accompanied by a BULLETIN reporter, to several points of interest near the Leper Settlement. One point visited was an extinct crater, the bottom of which is filled with salt water, and which previous soundings have proved to be exceedingly deep—perhaps over 2000 feet.

After the luau was finished notice was given it was time to leave the settlement. All were aboard the Likieke by 5:15 p. m. and in a few minutes the ship's prow was turned toward the capital city of Honolulu, which was reached between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning.

The entire party, which included some 300 friends of lepers on Molokai, besides Her Majesty and suite, express thanks to Hon. David Dayton, President of the Board of Health, and to Captain Cameron of the Likieke for the many courtesies shown during the trip.

THE MYSTERIOUS YACHT.

The Halcyon with a Fortune in Opium on Board—Cruise of the Claudine Unavailing.

The San Francisco Call of April 16th has the following in its shipping notes:

"Before the Gaefic arrived at Yokohama, the yacht Halcyon had sailed for Victoria (B. C.), with $150,000 worth of opium on board. The Customs authorities believe it is the intention of the owner, Whaley, to land the stuff somewhere on the United States soil, but Collector Phelps will be on the lookout for the Halcyon and will have a couple of revenue cutters out patrolling the coast. Should Whaley succeed in landing the drug in the United States he will reap a fortune, in spite of the fact that his vessel has been ashore on the Japanese coast twice, and he has had to give a heavy bond not to land the opium on Japanese territory."

Wilder's steamer Claudine, chartered by Marshal Wilson for a cruise in search of the opium yacht, returned to port at seven o'clock last night. Communication was had by the Marshal with the shore at Manele, on the south side of the island of Lanai, at seven o'clock yesterday morning. A new building was going up at the place, which looked as if it might be intended for a smuggler's hut. Two hours later a landing was made at Kaunaloa on the same side, off which the suspected smuggler was lying four days previously. Nothing of significance was discovered there. The Claudine called at Awala on the opposite side of the island at 11:20 o'clock, and after an inspection had been made of the beach without tangible results, doubled on her course and steered southward. About four o'clock, nothing having been sighted, the steamer was headed for Honolulu, where she arrived after an absence of twenty-one hours.

The cruise of the Claudine was made largely on the strength of a statement given in writing by Capt. Kaai of Hon. J. I. Dowsett's schooner Haleakala. He reported having seen a black schooner on the leeward side of Lanai on Thursday last. The Haleakala got within half a mile of the stranger and hoisted the Hawaiian flag to speak her. Getting no response Capt. Kaai headed the Haleakala to run close up to the stranger, which immediately darted up the Molokai channel. In one hour the black schooner was hulled down, Capt. Kaai, anxious to make good time to Honolulu, having given up the chase as useless, although his schooner is the fastest sailer out of this port.

Marshal Wilson had an armament of several field and Gatling guns on board the Claudine, and a force consisting of thirteen soldiers of the Royal Guards, six policemen, and twelve picked riflemen. Port Surveyor Tripp and two customs guards were also on board. The force amused themselves at target practice on the return trip. Although the smuggler was not sighted the cruise is claimed to have been not wholly devoid of useful results. Valuable information is said to have been obtained by Marshal Wilson, which will materially aid him in, at least, preventive measures against smuggling on the outlying and sparsely-settled islands.

The reputed owner of the yacht Halcyon has been staying at the Hawaiian Hotel for some weeks.

FOR DYSPEPSIA

Use Horsford's Acid Phosphate.
Dr. J. J. McWilliams, Denison, Ia., says: "I have used it largely in nervousness and dyspepsia, and I consider that it stands unrivalled as a remedy in cases of this kind. I have also used it in cases of sleeplessness, with very gratifying results."

A NEW INVOICE OF CYCLONE WINDMILLS JUST RECEIVED.

A large number of Cyclone Windmills are in use in these islands, and have given invariable satisfaction. People who are using them will tell what they do. They are rapidly displacing cheap steel mills on the coast because the latter "will not do the work required of an ordinary mill."

The Cyclones are the strongest—are perfect self-regulators—the most durable and have more wind surface and will run in a lighter breeze. They will do more work in the same wind and are the simplest, they have less friction than any other mill and require no care, except to keep them oiled. They are made of the best materials.

These mills are for sale by the Pacific Hardware Co., Ltd., Honolulu.
